Ad Hoc Open-ended Informal Working Group to study issues relating to the conservation and sustainable use of marine biological diversity beyond areas of national jurisdiction
New York, 1-4 April 2014

Format and annotated provisional agenda and organization of work

I. Format

1. The meeting of the Ad Hoc Open-ended Informal Working Group to study issues relating to the conservation and sustainable use of marine biological diversity beyond areas of national jurisdiction is convened pursuant to paragraphs 199 and 200 of General Assembly resolution 68/70, within its mandate established by resolution 66/231 and in the light of resolution 67/78.

2. In resolution 68/70, paragraph 200, the General Assembly requested the Secretary-General to convene three meetings of the Working Group, to take place from 1 to 4 April and 16 to 19 June 2014, and from 20 to 23 January 2015.

Chairmanship, participation and methods of work

3. The meeting will be co-chaired by the Permanent Representative of Sri Lanka to the United Nations, Palitha T. B. Kohona, and a Legal Adviser of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Netherlands, Liesbeth Lijnzaad. Both were appointed by the President of the General Assembly in consultation with Member States and taking into account the need for representation from developed and developing countries.

4. As decided by the General Assembly in paragraph 79 of its resolution 60/30, the meeting of the Working Group shall be open to all States Members of the United Nations and all parties to the United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea, with others invited as observers in accordance with past practice of the United Nations, and may be conducted in closed sessions, as appropriate.

5. The Co-Chairs have prepared the present format to facilitate the work of the Working Group.

Agenda and annotated agenda

6. The Co-Chairs have prepared a provisional agenda for the meeting (A/AC.276/L.11). To assist delegations in their preparations, the Co-Chairs have also compiled an annotated provisional agenda and proposed organization of work (see sect. II).

Outcome of the meeting of the Working Group

7. In paragraph 198 of its resolution 68/70, the General Assembly requested the Working Group, within its mandate established by resolution 66/231 and in the light of resolution 67/78, and in order to prepare for the decision to be taken at the sixty-ninth session of the Assembly, to make recommendations to the Assembly on the scope, parameters and feasibility of an international instrument under the Convention. To this end, the Assembly decided that the Working Group should meet for three meetings of four days each, with the possibility of the Assembly deciding that additional meetings would be held, if needed, within existing resources.

8. The Co-Chairs will prepare a summary of discussions and transmit it to the President of the sixty-eighth session of the Assembly.

II. Annotated provisional agenda and organization of work

Tuesday, 1 April 2014

Item 5. Consideration, in order to prepare for the decision to be taken at the sixty-ninth session of the General Assembly, of the scope, parameters and feasibility of an international instrument under the United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea, within the mandate established by the Assembly in its resolution 66/231 and in the light of resolution 67/78, with a view to making recommendations to the Assembly

15. Under this item, delegations will be invited to consider, in order to prepare for the decision to be taken at the sixty-ninth session of the General Assembly, the scope, parameters and feasibility of an international instrument under the Convention, within the mandate established by the Assembly in its resolution 66/231 and in the light of resolution 67/78, with a view to making recommendations to the Assembly.

16. In accordance with paragraph 201 of resolution 68/70, in order to inform the deliberations of the Working Group, Member States were invited, by letter dated 17 December 2013, to submit their views on the scope, parameters and feasibility of an international instrument under the Convention by 28 February 2014, for circulation by the Division for Ocean Affairs and the Law of the Sea to Member States as an informal working document compiling the views of States no later than three weeks before the first meeting of the Working Group.

17. In the interest of structured discussions, delegations will be invited to discuss in sequence and throughout the meeting:

(a) the scope of an international instrument under the Convention

(b) the parameters of such an international instrument

(c) the feasibility of such an international instrument

18. In this regard, delegations will be invited to focus during the present afternoon on item 5 (a) on the scope of the instrument.
